

MISSING

HAVE YOU SEEN ME?

Rachel FUNARI

Missing since: Thursday,
03 March 2011

Last seen: Bruny Island TAS

Year of birth: 1975

Age now: 48

Gender: Female

Height: 165

Build: Medium

Hair: Brown, Long, Curly

Complexion: Fair

Eyes: Brown

Circumstances:

American National Rachel Funari, then 35, had been living in Victoria, and was last seen around 3.30pm on Thursday 3 March 2011 in a shack at the end of Adventure Bay Road, Bruny Island, Tasmania.

Earlier that day she was reported to have discussed walking the Fluted Cape Walking Track while on Bruny Island. Rachel had arrived in Tasmania only two days prior to her last sighting, and had been travelling around with a medium sized black backpack and small tent bag. Enquiries have identified several places visited by Rachel before she was reported missing, the last being Bruny Island. She failed to board her return flight to Melbourne on Tuesday, 8 March 2011.

Her backpack, tent and belongings were located at the shack on Bruny Island on Sunday 13 March 2011. Police searches of the area failed to find any further sign of Rachel.

There are grave fears for the safety and welfare of Rachel.

If you have information that may assist police to locate Rachel please call Crime Stoppers on 1800 333 000.

If you have information regarding a missing person, please contact

CRIME STOPPERS 1800 333 000