Circumstances:

Brett McGillivray has been missing since 10 April 2006 when he left for work at about 6.40am from Perth, Western Australia.

Brett was driving a white 1990 Toyota Camry Sedan, registered number 8CI766.

The last confirmed sighting of Brett was near Hermannsburg, Northern Territory on 14 April 2006.

It is believed he was travelling to Alice Springs and on 26 April 2006 Brett's vehicle was located abandoned in a truck bay on the Stuart Highway, approximately 80 kilometres north of Tennant Creek, Northern Territory.

The keys were still in the ignition and the vehicle still had an ample supply of petrol.

All of Brett's personal possessions were still in the vehicle.

It is believed he may have had a small black backpack with him. An extensive search of the area failed to locate any trace of Brett.
